ROMEO AND JULIET

Were lovers of sentiment. There's a sort of sentiment in our stock of Furniture we invite attention to. It's the sentiment of "saving money." You can't make a purchase in our store during October without getting a bargain. We are able to buy in such quantities there is always a saving in price and freight.

These facts are the result of our low prices. You and your friends are invited to inspect our immense stock. You will find something to interest you.

We are showing Parlor Suits in our windows for two or three days.

The prices on them tell the story.

TEAS, COFFEES AND SPICES

have been added to our list of products in our Soap Order Department. The blenders guarantee them and our own guarantee also stands back of these goods. Ask us for the new Premium List.

Good Moving Picture Show.

Walter H. Foster's moving pictures were well received at the Rutland opera house last night. The programme was a long and interesting one, containing many different kinds of pictures ranging from melodrama to the face comedy. Among the funniest pictures shown were "The Troublesome Flea" and "The Tipster Taken for a Fool." All the pictures in the programme were imported from France or England. The one exception was "Life of a Cowboy," a thrilling western drama of the old cow-punching times. The American Beauties, the closing number is an exquisite piece of coloring and design, which brought down the house. Mr. Foster's pictures are remarkably free from that disagreeable flicker seen so much in shows of this kind--Rutland Herald.

At the Barre opera house Saturday, October 6, matinee and evening.
